

kacy & kirk
cambria, california

PINES BY THE SEA

THEIR STORY

Destined to be together, Kacy and Kirk attended the same university and didn't even know it. It was years later that they met at a restaurant with friends and a conversation when Kirk made his move by buying the lady a drink. Before you know it, they were hooked!

THE CEREMONY & RECEPTION

Set in the heart of a country ranch and alongside the Pacific Ocean, the location blends South and North California. The ceremony took place at Old Santa Rosa Chapel, a quaint wood-sided little church set on the hilltop amongst forests of pine and oak. As the nuptials ended, a bagpiper led a 'wedding parade' from the church to the reception area, with the small town locals clapping and cheering the newlyweds. Approximately one hundred guests took their places at the tables in a rustic and charming barn called 'The Fog's End'. Extending the barn with a clear tent gave more room for dining as well as a great view and feel of the countryside.

